The floor plan diagram represents a layout solution. The equipment with kitchen units, built-in wardrobes, furniture, etc. is not included in the sale. The areas of individual rooms are approximate. The developer reserves the right to change.

*The floor area is calculated according to Government Regulation No. 366/2013 Coll. as the floor area bounded by the inner sides of the perimeter walls of the apartment, including the floor area of all vertical load-bearing and non-load-bearing structures inside the apartment. It does not include balconies, loggias, terraces, front gardens and other paved areas.
